Methodist Federation for Social Action

"I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people."

Amos 7:8

Become part of this intersectional movement at the heart of United Methodism.

WHY JOIN MFSA?

I'm a member because I know I'm never alone in seeking justice rooted in faith.

Jan Nelson

I joined MFSA because I am convinced that we need to balance our personal piety with our social actions and outward witness. I need support and reliable information in order to do this, so I am glad to be a part of this passionate and dedicated group!

Steve Mitchell

I'm a member of MFSA because I think we are better able to work for justice when we do it in community.

Karen Nelson

MFSA is an independent movement of progressive United Methodists taking action on issues of Justice, Peace, and Liberation.

The Methodist Federation for Social Action calls upon The United Methodist Church to expand its understanding and embodiment of the radical call of the Gospel to be an inclusive, justice seeking, risk-taking Body of Christ. We support and augment peace and justice ministries through and beyond The United Methodist Church.

Through MFSA, we live out our belief that to be a faithful witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ is to be involved in the transformation of the social order.

How You Can Participate in Making a Difference

Pray regularly for the work of MFSA both in the wider United Methodist Church and in the Oregon-Idaho Conference.

Learn about justice and intersectionality.

Connect with others in the Chapter network in the following ways:

- Attend MFSA events
- Attend MFSA gatherings at Annual Conference or in your local area
- Sit in on a meeting of the Chapter MFSA Executive Committee (meeting regularly via Zoom)
- Submit an article for publication in our chapter newsletter, The Witness
- Consider serving a three-year term on the Executive Committee

Supported entirely by annual memberships and contributions, MFSA is not an official United Methodist body.
